

Bangla Shasya Bima

Prospectus

Agriculture is essential to India's economy, making the welfare of farmers a key focus in policy development. To bolster this important sector, SBI General has introduced the Bangla Shasya Bima insurance product, which provides extensive crop insurance in the state of West Bengal. This program aims to protect farmers from unforeseen difficulties such as natural calamities, pest outbreaks, and crop illnesses. By enrolling in this initiative, farmers can secure their income and foster a more stable agricultural landscape. The Bangla Shasya Bima scheme not only offers financial security but also encourages sustainable farming methods, ultimately aiding in the overall advancement of the agricultural industry in the area.

What We Cover

In the agricultural sector, various risks can significantly impact crop yield and farmer income. To mitigate these risks, several insurance coverages are available:

Prevented sowing/ Failed sowing

This insurance provides protection against yield losses due to non-preventable risks such as natural fires, lightning, storms, tempests, cyclones, droughts, dry spells, pests, and diseases. It ensures that farmers are compensated for losses incurred during the growing season, allowing them to recover and plan for future planting.

Mid-Season Adversity

This coverage is designed to offer immediate financial relief to farmers facing widespread calamities or adverse seasonal conditions. If the expected yield during the season is projected to be less than 50% of the normal yield, farmers shall be eligible for claim compensation to help them manage the financial impact of such events.

Localized Calamities

This coverage is designed to offer losses for the insured beneficiary from specific risks like hailstorms, tornadoes, landslides, inundation, cloud bursts, and natural fires affecting certain crops in designated areas are covered. This applies to major crops in Kharif and Rabi seasons, requiring loss notifications within 72 hours.

Post-harvest losses

Losses to the Insured Beneficiary from certain crops in designated areas must be dried in the field after harvesting and are covered against specific risks like hailstorms and unseasonal rains. This applies mainly to Paddy crops for Kharif and Rabi seasons, with coverage lasting up to two weeks post-harvest. Loss reports need to be submitted within 72 hours.

Prevented Sowing/Planting Risk Coverage

Farmers are eligible for coverage up to 25% of the Sum Insured (SI) if they are unable to sow or plant due to insufficient rainfall or adverse seasonal conditions. This coverage is applicable when farmers had the intention to plant and had already incurred expenses related to the sowing process.

By understanding and utilizing these insurance options, farmers can better protect their livelihoods against the unpredictable nature of agriculture.

Key Features

The Bengal Bangla Shasya Bima Yojana is a robust initiative designed to bolster the agricultural sector in the state. Here are its key features:

Comprehensive Coverage: This policy safeguards farmers against a wide range of risks, including natural disasters, pest infestations, and crop diseases, ensuring their livelihoods are protected.

Government Supported: With state subsidies, this insurance becomes affordable for all farmers, promoting inclusivity and financial security in agriculture.

Automated Weather Stations: The program leverages cutting-edge technology for precise claim assessments, enhancing the efficiency and reliability of the insurance process.

In summary, the Bangla Shasya Bima Yojana is a vital tool for empowering farmers and securing the future of agriculture in West Bengal.

SUM INSURED

- 1) Sum Insured per hectare will be same and equal to the Scale of Finance as recommended by the District Level Technical Committee and notified by the State Government.
- 2) No other calculation of Scale of Finance will be applicable. Sum Insured for each Insured Beneficiary is equal to the Scale of Finance per acre multiplied by area of the Notified Crop proposed by the Insured Beneficiary for insurance. 'Area under cultivation' shall always be expressed in 'acre'. The conversion factor from hectare to acre will be 1Ha = 2.47 acre.
